

Holy Trinity Online

As an international congregation with members living all across the city of Brussels, keeping in touch is very important. During the last few years we have developed a wide variety of ways to keep you updated with events at Holy Trinity and in the wider community.

<http://www.htbrussels.com> is the official website of Holy Trinity Brussels. Here you will find the latest notice sheet, sermons and information about upcoming events.

"HTB Regulars" is an open-to-all Facebook group for past and present church members from all services. The group page can be written on by anyone, but messages are relatively infrequent.

"Be Church Together" is an open-to-all Facebook group for people of all churches in Brussels. Social events such as plays, cinema visits, road-trips and gigs are posted fairly frequently. This is another great way to make friends if you're new to Holy Trinity.

<http://churchestogether.be> lists many events in Brussels for English-speaking churches in Brussels, and has a good collection of links & resources.

htbsocial@yahoogroups.com is an open mailing list for social events for members of the whole Holy Trinity family. Examples of events include cinema trips, social evenings, and parties. Anyone can post messages, and this list is a great way to make friends in Brussels if you're new to the city. To join, please contact Sian at siany74@yahoo.com.

If you want to know more about events linked to Holy Trinity's 7 pm informal service visit htb7pm@yahoogroups.co.uk. It is a moderated mailing list for those who belong to or are interested in knowing more about the evening service community. To join, contact htb7pm@yahoo.co.uk.

Holy Trinity Pro-Cathedral Brussels

Summer Programme 2010

The pro-Cathedral Church of Holy Trinity
Rue Capitaine Crespel 29, B-1050 Brussels
Http://www.htbrussels.com

Dear Friends,

This term programme gives you lots of information about the life of Holy Trinity. It tells you who is responsible for different aspects of church life, who to contact and what is going on. We hope you find it useful!

This term, during May, our morning and afternoon services celebrate the Sundays of Easter. After Trinity Sunday, we begin journeying through Luke's gospel. This gospel shows Jesus' special concern for the outsider, for the poor, and for women. It contains many of Jesus' best-loved parables.

The evening service follows two mini-series: Knowing God (in May) and letters to the churches in the book of Revelation (in June and July). During the latter half of July and in August, we will all follow the gospel of Luke.

Many of our congregation will be travelling on business or for pleasure during these coming months. We pray that God will keep everyone safe and well on the roads and in the air. If you are away from Holy Trinity, do not forget that you can download our newsletters and sermons from our website <http://www.htbrussels.com> to stay in touch. We also offer a link to the Church of England's daily prayer resources.

I hope this summer will be a time of refreshment for you—both physically and spiritually.

Robert Innes
Chaplain
